Dear Judge Briccetti,

I am Jacob Teitelbaum, Plaintiff in this action.

I am informed of your decision of March 4, 2013 and I thank you for your fast response. I am sorry to have to write to you again so soon and I am certainly not trying to annoy Your Honor but I need to be clear about 1 point.

Your Honor, I was not asking the Court for anything other than clarification. I apologize if this is inappropriate but I am very confused in how to address the various Defendants. I am not seeking any extensions or other special considerations. I just want to make sure that I am complying with the Court's Orders. If Your Honor could reference my letter of March 3, 2013 with the knowledge that I am only looking for clarification it may be helpful.

If this communication is inappropriate I apologize in advance, I am just at a loss for which parties belong in the 2 apparent groups at this point. I sincerely do appreciate any guidance that the Court may offer, if it is appropriate. I thank you in advance for your time.

Respectfully Submitted,

Dated March 5, 2013, Monroe, NY.
