Re: Civil Action No. 12-CV-2858
Jacob Teitelbaum, Plaintiff
v.
Juda Katz, Chaya Katz, Joel Tennenbaum, Bluma
Tennenbaum et al, Defendants

The Court construes this letter as an application to join in the motions of the Children's Rights Society and Kim Pavlovic to dismiss the complaint. The application is granted, and the undersigned defendants are permitted to join in the motions.
So ordered:

Honorable Judge Briccetti:

The undersigned Juda Katz, Chaya Katz, Joel and Bluma Tennenbaum have been named as defendants in the above referenced lawsuit. We are relatives of the plaintiff Jacob Teitelbaum, and not are employed by and do not work for any state agency involved in this case.

We have received a copy of papers sent to the Court by the attorney for the defendants The Children's Rights Society and KIM PAVLOVIC, asking your Honor to dismissal the case, Since we believe we are in a similar situation to the Children's Rights Society and KIM PAVLOVIC, we pray that if the Court grants the motion and dismisses the case, Your Honor Dismiss this case against us as well.

At this time we are unable to hire an attorney to represent us, as the Katz family consists of eight children and the Tennenbaum family has three. It would be a great financial burden to both families to hire an attorney at this time to represent us.

Respectfully,

Juda Katz

Chaya Katz
